(i) Instead of the actual leave salary drawn during Earned Leave or Half-pay leave etc., the duty pay which he would have drawn but for going on leave, will count.

(ii) The increment which accrued during the Earned Leave of less than 120 days of Earned Leave, if the total Earned Leave taken at a time exceeded 120 days, though not actually drawn, will be treated as having been drawn and included in the calculation of average emoluments.

(d) pay drawn in Foreign service cannot be considered as Emoluments for purpose of calculation of pensionary benefits, only, the pay which he would have drawn in the University but for going on Foreign service will count.

6. Pension, which is a monthly payment after retirement, calculated as per rules, will be payable only if a person completes a minimum qualifying service of 10 years (i.e., 20 half-years).
